VOL. 11.

No. 47.

THE TRI-WEEKLY COMMONWEALTH
Will be published every Monday, Wednesday and Friday, by
A. G. HODGES & COMPANY,
At FOUR DOLLARS PER ANNUM, payable in advance.

THE WEEKLY COMMONWEALTH, a large mammoth sheet, is published every Tuesday morning at TWO DOLLARS PER ANNUM, in advance.
Our terms for advertising, either in the Tri-Weekly or Weekly Commonwealth, will be as liberal as in any of the newspapers published in the west.

The Frankfort Commonwealth.
A. G. HODGES & CO., PROPRIETORS.

J. H. JOHNSON, Editor.

The Proprietors of the Commonwealth, grateful for the generous patronage which has been bestowed upon them, are determined to furnish their patrons a journal which shall be unexcelled in any of the departments which comprise a first class newspaper.

Published at the Capital of the State, it will be enabled to furnish its readers with the latest intelligence of the actions of the higher courts and of the various departments of the State. It will also contain the latest telegraphic news of stirring events, and also of the New York, Cincinnati, Louisville and New Orleans markets.

In politics the Commonwealth will be conservative, occupying a middle and antagonistic ground in reference to the two extremes. The old parties broken up, and old issues virtually dead, the vital question at present is Union or disunion. The Commonwealth is for the Union, believing it to be the greatest safeguard for our rights, as well as our most effective auxiliary in our efforts to obtain redress for our wrongs. Its conductors do not regard disunion as a remedy for any of the wrongs of the South, but rather an aggravation. It will contend for the equality of the States in the Union, and for the absolute non-interference by Congress with the domestic affairs of the States and Territories.

We shall aim to make the Commonwealth an acceptable and appropriate freemason companion. It will contain selections from the choicest literature of the day, prose, poetry, &c.

The Weekly will be printed on extra double medium paper, in new and beautiful type.

Terms, in advance, for the Tri-Weekly, $4 per annum.
Terms, for the Weekly $2 per annum.

SOMETHING NEW!

Daguerreotypes, Ambrotypes, Photographs, and Ivorytypes.

H. L. GOODWIN,
TAKES pleasure in informing the public that he has returned to Frankfort, and taken the gallery of C. A. Clarke, adjoining the Telegraph Office, and that he would be pleased to wait on those wishing perfect Likenesses of themselves or friends. He is confident he will be able to please the most fastidious in any kind of picture they may desire, from a life-size portrait to the smallest Daguerreotype or Ambrotype. Also, Daguerreotypes of deceased persons enlarged to the size of Life and Colored in Oil, and satisfaction given.

I am also prepared to make those gems of Photography, the Daguerreotype, which is truly the most durable small picture yet produced. The Ivorytype, (made only at this gallery,) is acknowledged by all to be the most beautiful style of Photographic pictures ever presented to the public. In brilliancy of tone and color, delicacy of finish, correctness of likeness, and durability, it is far superior to the best miniature on Ivory.

AYER'S

Ague Cure,

FOR THE SPEEDY CURE OF
Intermittent Fever, or Fever and Ague, Remittent Fever, Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical Headache, or Bilious Headache, and Bilious Fevers, indeed for the whole class of diseases originating in biliary derangement, caused by the Malaria of miasmatic countries.

No one remedy is louder called for by the necessities of the American people than a sure and safe cure for Fever and Ague. Such we are now enabled to offer, with a perfect certainty that it will eradicate the disease, and with assurance, founded on proof, that no harm can arise from its use in any quantity.

That which protects from or prevents this disorder must be of immense service in the communities where it prevails. Prevention is better than cure, for the patient escapes the risk which he must run in violent attacks of this baleful distemper. This "Cure" expels the miasmatic poison of Fever and Ague from the system, and prevents the development of the disease, if taken on the first approach of its premonitory symptoms. It is not only the best remedy ever yet discovered for this class of complaints, but also the cheapest. The large quantity we supply for a dollar brings it within the reach of every body; and in bilious districts, where Fever and Ague prevails, every body should have it and use it freely both for cure and protection. It is hoped this price will place it within the reach of all—the poor as well as the rich. A great superiority of this remedy over any other ever discovered for the speedy and certain cure of Intermittents, is that it contains no Quinine or mineral, consequently it produces no quinine or other injurious effects whatever upon the constitution. Those cured by it are left as healthy as if they had never had the disease.

Fever and Ague is not alone the consequence of the miasmatic poison. A great variety of disorders arise from its irritation, among which are Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Headache, Blindness, Toothache, Earache, Catarrh, Asthma, Palpitation, Painful Affection of the Spleen, Hysterics, Pain in the Bowels, Colic, Paralysis, and Derangement of the Stomach, all of which, when originating in this cause, put on the intermittent type, or become periodical. This "Cure" expels the poison from the blood, and consequently cures them all. It is an invaluable protection to immigrants and persons traveling, or temporarily residing in the malarious districts. If taken occasionally or daily while exposed to the infection, that will be excreted from the system, and cannot accumulate in sufficient quantity to ripen into disease. Hence it is even more valuable for protection than cure, and few will suffer from Intermittents, if they avail themselves of the protection this remedy affords.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A FAMILY PHYSIC, are so composed that disease within the range of their action can rarely withstand or evade them. Their penetrating properties search, and cleanse, and invigorate every portion of the human organism, correcting its diseased action, and restoring its healthy vitalities. As a consequence of these properties, the invalid who is bowed down with pain or physical debility is astonished to find his health or energy restored by a remedy at once so simple and inviting.

Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also many formidable and dangerous diseases. The agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis his American Almanac, containing certificates of their cures and directions for their use in the following complaints: Costiveness, Heartburn, Headache arising from disordered Stomach, Aneurism, Indigestion, Pain in and around Junction of the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, Jaundice, and other kindred complaints, arising from a low state of the body or obstruction of its functions. There are an excellent alterative for the removal of the blood and the restoration of tone and strength to the system debilitated by disease.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF
Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease.

So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is so apparent to escape observation, and its virtues are known to the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted that can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

It cures Consumption.

It cures Sore Throat, Coughs and Colds.

It cures Asthma, Scrofula, and impurities of the blood.

This unequalled remedy is now for the first time introduced to the public.

It was providentially discovered by a missionary while traveling in Arabia. He was cured of Consumption by its use, after his case was pronounced hopeless by learned physicians in Europe.

He has forwarded to us, in writing, a full account of his own extraordinary cure, and of a number of other cures which have come under his observation, and also a full account of the medicine.

At his request, and impelled by a desire to extend a knowledge of this remedy to the public, we have had his communication printed in pamphlet form for free distribution. Its interest is enhanced by an account which he gives of some of the scenes of the Syrian massacres, which he obtained from those who were sufferers in that awful tragedy. This pamphlet may be obtained at our office, or it will be sent free by mail to all who apply for it.

We import the MAKORA ARABICA direct from Smyrna, through the house of Clean & Gyppus, and we have always on hand a full supply put up in bottles, ready for use, with full directions.

And then the House adjourned.

Ritchie county, Virginia, at least, is not answerable to the charge of dilatoriness in sending men to the Union army. The Democracy states that five hundred men have already enlisted in that little county, and recruiting is still brisk. Her majority for Union was overwhelming, but only seven hundred Union votes were polled in the county. Western Virginia is now doing bravely for the Union.—Loc. Dem.

Proclamation by the Governor.

In obedience to the subjoined joint resolution adopted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, of the Government of the Confederate States, the State of Tennessee, and all others concerned, are hereby informed that "Kentucky expects the Confederate or Tennessee troops to be withdrawn from her soil unconditionally."

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my name and caused the seal of the Commonwealth to be affixed. Done at Frankfort, this 13th day of September, A. D. 1861, and in the 70th year of the Commonwealth.

By the Governor: B. MAGOFFIN.
Thos. B. Monroe, Jr., Secretary of State.
Sept. 14, 1861—w&w-3m.

Resolved by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, That his Excellency, Governor Magoffin, be and he is hereby instructed to inform those concerned that Kentucky expects the Confederate or Tennessee troops to be withdrawn from her soil unconditionally.

DAILY COMMONWEALTH.

FOR THE

SESSION OF THE LEGISLATURE.

The FRANKFORT COMMONWEALTH will be published daily during the approaching session of the General Assembly of Kentucky. A competent reporter will be in attendance in each House, and an accurate report of the proceedings of each day will be given the ensuing morning. The Commonwealth will thus afford the most convenient medium of communication between the members of the Legislature and their constituents, keeping the latter informed not only of the manner in which their own local interests are represented, but of the general course of legislative proceedings, and saving to the former the trouble and labor of a great deal of private correspondence which would otherwise be indispensable. Beside reports of the proceedings of each House of the Kentucky Legislature, the Commonwealth will furnish a summary of all the more important items of the current news of the day, foreign and domestic, war, political and miscellaneous.

THE COMMONWEALTH.

FRANKFORT.

J. H. JOHNSON, Editor.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 25, 1861.

Office of Clerk of the Senate.

The Clerk of the Senate would inform the members of the Legislature and all other persons having official business with him, that his office is in the 2d story of the Commonwealth Office building, where he may be found, except when the Senate is in session, or he is otherwise necessarily absent.

Extra copies of THE DAILY COMMONWEALTH can be supplied (put up in wrappers ready for mailing), at the rate of $3 per hundred. All orders for papers should be given the day before the issue of the particular number of the paper which is wanted.

Gentlemen who wish papers can leave their orders at the office, or with John M. Todd, in the House of Representatives, or Geo. W. Lewis, in the Senate chamber.

The Infamous Work of an Infamous Traitor.

The following letter from S. B. Buckner, late U. S. Gen., was found upon a spy from his camp:

BOWLING GREEN, Sept. 19, 1861.

My DEAR SIR: Your letter is received. Look No. 1 must be destroyed. I rely upon our friends at Owensboro to do it, and not an hour must be lost. The destruction is a great deal to me in my present position. Assemble our friends, without delay, in sufficient force to accomplish the object. One of the best ways is to open all the gates but one, and to dig down behind the wall, at both gates, to put one or two kegs of powder behind the wall, to apply a slow match, and blow the wall into the lock. If possible, it should be done in such a way as to leave a strong current through the lock, which will empty the dam. Provide everything in advance. Do not fail; it is worth an effort.

The Louisville Journal in remarking upon this outrage well says—for this deed Gen. S. B. Buckner, sooner or later, will have to render a terrible account. The locks and dams on Green river were a portion, and a large one, of the pride and wealth of our State. We all remember at what cost of money and labor they were constructed. They were one of the most important and valuable internal improvements ever made in Kentucky. They opened a river market for the whole of the immense population of the Green river section. But, as a mere military maneuver, they are ruthlessly swept away, remorselessly annihilated in a night by a renegade Kentuckian, who brings an army for the conquest of his native State. Railroad bridges, railroad tracks, locks and dams, river packets, public and private property of all descriptions, are recklessly sacrificed by the invaders in the pursuit of their accursed purposes.

Many of us have ventured to hope, many of us are still hoping, that, after a brief period of hostilities, peace may return to our State. Our Union friends are all looking forward to peace and praying that it may soon come to bless our land. But, even if peace shall be restored, the ruin and desolation wrought by the hand of Gen. S. B. Buckner will remain for years, a dark and horrid monument of his infamy and that of his followers. He will be remembered as one of the great malefactors of the age.

To the Young Men of Kentucky.

Now is the time to show your love for your State. Kentucky belongs to Kentuckians, and she is invaded by an insolent foe who threatens to conquer and subjugate her. Courage now and promptness. Gen. Anderson and Gen. Crittenden call for volunteers, and Kentucky needs them. Let none able to leave home hang back at this hour of the State's necessity. We have desired peace, and ardent labor for peace. We have refused to draw the sword against our Southern neighbors. They have not appreciated our forbearance. They are on our soil, destroying our property and slaughtering our people. They pretend to come from a military necessity. Give them an overwhelming military necessity to leave. Let us have fifty thousand soldiers in Kentucky, ready to teach an insolent invader a lesson he will not soon forget. To arms! No time to parley! Make the contest short and decided!

We publish in another column the eloquent appeal of Capt. C. D. Pennebaker, to the State Guard. Capt. Pennebaker, as Senator from the county of Jefferson, at the last regular session, and at the called sessions of the Legislature, on numerous occasions pledged his honor and his life for the loyalty of the State Guard. He was honest and sincere in his pledges. Being a loyal and true son of Kentucky himself, he could not for a moment entertain the idea that any native of his noble old Commonwealth would turn traitor, and invade her territory, destroy her property and murder her citizens. In some instances he was mistaken, but let us hope, for the credit of humanity, that those who follow S. B. Buckner, will constitute the exception, and not the general rule.

Four of the crew of the privateer Jeff. Davis have been arrested in Charleston, S. C., on a charge of conspiring to kill the captain and officers of the Jeff. Davis, and to take the vessel into the port of New York.

A Chicago paper states that the Adams Express Company's bill against the Government, per General Fremont, for transportation of guns, ammunition, &c., since the General took command at St. Louis, will reach $300,000.

Rally Citizens of Frankfort and Franklin County!

Fellow citizens of Franklin county, the neutrality of your State has been wantonly violated by the Confederate forces—your State is invaded by Tennesseans, with the torch in one hand and the sword in the other; not only by Tennesseans, but by men—fends incarnate, calling themselves Kentuckians. Your city and county are imperiled—the armies are now approaching each other—then rally at once to the defense of your country—your State—your county—your homes and your firesides, or will you submit, like cowards, to be guarded and protected by brave and true men from a distance? Look at those brave and chivalric mountaineers from Camp Robinson, who came to our midst, at a moment's warning, to protect our lives and property against the ruthless invader. I am commissioned and empowered to raise a company of Infantry, to join Gen. Robert Anderson's command as soon as completed. I will be at "Camp Dooley", on the railroad, five miles west of Frankfort, every day between the hours of 10 A. M. and 4 P. M. prepared to receive you into my company. Rally at once! delay not a moment. A. NEAT. Sept. 24, 1861.

Letter from Mason.

MAYSVILLE, September 21, 1861. The Union Barbecue and Basket Meeting in Key's Maple Grove, near this city to-day, was attended by thousands of Ohioans and Kentuckians. Speeches were delivered by Hon. Messrs. Maynard and Carter, of Tennessee, and Hon. W. H. Wadsworth of this city. Great enthusiasm prevailed; strong Union resolutions were adopted; a fine dinner was served; a grand dress parade of the military took place, and the whole affair passed off without a single incident occurring to mar the festivity of the occasion. Kentucky's new Brigadier General, William Nelson, whose courage and persistency in organizing his Dick Robinson Brigade, struck terror into the ranks of the secessionists, was on the ground, and attracted a great deal of attention. Gen. Marshall, of Ohio, and several other distinguished staff officers were also present.

The crowd was estimated at 25,000, by competent judges. Three splendid bands were in attendance to enliven the scene with soul-stirring music. The speeches, particularly those affecting recitals by the Tennessee exiles and refugees, had the happiest influence. The cry "to arms! to arms!" resounded from every quarter—a dozen recruiting officers were busily enlisting the entire day. C. J. Charles A. Marshall's regiment is rapidly filling up, and will go into camp this county, on Monday next. The blood of the patriot, is the seed of freedom. F.

GEN. S. B. BUCKNER'S MOVEMENTS.—Last Wednesday morning, about 11 o'clock, the first trains from the South arrived at Bowlinggreen with two or three thousand troops from Camp Boone. They at once took possession of the depot and tore down the Union flag, after having fired perhaps a hundred shots at it. About night the rest of the troops arrived, making altogether seven or eight thousand. They had twenty-one cannon. That night they took a cannon and one hundred and twenty stand of arms belonging to the Bowlinggreen Home Guard, and sent six cannon and two thousand men to Green river. Gen. Roger W. Hanson was the military commander of Green river.

At the last accounts a portion of the forces had come forward as far as Elizabethtown, and the intention was to attack Sherman and Rousseau's troops and then to move directly into Louisville.

THE HABEAS CORPUS IN BALTIMORE.—After the five secession members of the Legislature were arrested on Monday, by order of Gen. Dix, and taken to Fort McHenry, a man by the name of Joseph Wicks, from the eastern shore of Maryland, undertook to get out writs of habeas corpus for their release. As soon as the fact was communicated to Gen. Dix he ordered the police to arrest Wicks and send him home by the first steamer, with a notification to the captain not to bring him to Baltimore again. As the New York World remarks Gen. Dix is certainly entitled to the credit of devising an original and summary mode of staying proceedings in habeas corpus cases—one peculiarly adapted to the necessities and the jurisprudence of Baltimore.

INDIANA.—There are ten new regiments ready for marching orders in Indiana. They are in camp at various points. Six three months' regiments have reorganized "for the war," and are now ready for duty. There are six companies of cavalry and four batteries of rifled cannon. With these in the field, Indiana will have 37,000 in the ranks, and by the first of October, she will have 40,000, including one regiment of cavalry, which is now organizing. There are also brass field pieces at Lawrence, one at Vevy, one at Jeffersonville, two at New Albany, two at Madison, three at Evansville, and four at Rockport.

A DASTARDLY TRICK.—Henderson The (Ky.) Mail, of the 17th, says that the six-pounder cannon belonging to the State Guards of that place, or rather loaned by the State to the Henderson Guards, was stolen about two o'clock on Tuesday morning from the place where it was kept by parties not certainly known but strongly suspected. As a matter of course its intended destination is some rebel camp in Tennessee.

We learn from the Santa Fe Gazette of the 17th of August, that Kit Carson is in command of the First Regiment of Volunteers at Fort Union, and that much satisfaction is felt at their general appearance and efficiency.

Call Upon the State Guard.

LOUISVILLE, KY., Sept. 22, 1861.

Major A. L. Symms, Kentucky State Guard: Our State has been invaded by a hostile foe. The invader is threatening our homes and our firesides. I most earnestly desire that you should issue your call upon the Kentucky State Guard, to rally to the defense of all that is dear to a free people—honor and government. When the law organizing the State Guard was assailed in the Legislature in March last, I boldly defended the organization and the loyalty of its members to the State of Kentucky, relying upon my confidence in the patriotism and chivalry which they inherited from their fathers. Make, then, one last and earnest appeal to the Guard to rally to the service of the State, the defense of our wives and children, and all that is dear to us, and give them an opportunity in the field, by their valor and their arms, to redeem the promises which I made for them in the Senate of Kentucky, when the clouds of distrust in the breasts of good and true men threatened their inevitable destruction as a military organization. The Guard indorsed all I promised for them by giving me a public recognition when I returned home. It is the duty of the Guard to redeem promises thus made and indorsed, and to seize this opportunity to relieve themselves from all suspicions of disloyalty. Many of the Guard are now and always have been true to their country. Let them, then, show who are false and who are true. Respectfully, C. D. PENNEBAKER.

IMPORTANT TO VOLUNTEERS.—ALLOTMENT

Tickets.—The War Department has made the necessary orders to carry out the act of Congress relative to allotments of pay. Hereafter the recruit, upon enrolling his name, has only to designate what proportion of his monthly stipend shall be given to his family to have the necessary money made, and the sum paid regularly. The step is an important one. Large numbers of very desirable men have turned away from the recruiting station, because the officer could give them no assurance as to the provision for their families while they are absent on duty. Such assurance can now be had. It will be no difficult business for the families of needy volunteers to obtain advances from friends and the charitable on the strength of the allotment ticket, so that the means of support may be made available from the very day the recruit has entered the ranks. If some organization, with small capital, could be framed for the purpose of saving the holders of such tickets from extortion and oppressive discounts, a still heavier weight of anxiety would be taken from the mind of the volunteer, and another inducement offered to enlistment.

MILITARY PREPARATIONS.—The Cincinnati Commercial says, it is the intention of the Union companies of Covington to respond to a call from the military authorities in the State, and shoulder their muskets for the defense of the bridges along the Kentucky Central Railroad, and preparations are being made for that purpose.

Dr. Ethelbert L. Dudley, of Lexington, has been authorized to raise a regiment of volunteers for the United States service, to be attached to the command of Gen. Anderson, and has entered actively upon the duties of his appointment.

We are not a member of the Legislature, and of course are not posted as to movements, &c., but we take the responsibility of saying to the Union men of Kentucky, that the INVADERS will be expelled, and that "right quickly."

When Ohio and Indiana were in their infancy the Kentuckians went to aid them in their perilous wars with the British and Indians. Our help was sorely needed, and it was rendered with alacrity and received with gratitude.

Now we of Kentucky are receiving the payment of a debt half a century old. Kentucky is invaded, and the gallant sons of Ohio and Indiana are coming not to her rescue. They are pouring into our borders, regiment by regiment, and their whole bearing denotes, unmistakably indicates, that their chivalry will give new renown to the soil of old Kentucky.

And now let us all consider what a burning shame it would be, what a deep and disgraceful stigma, to the Kentucky name, if, whilst our neighbors are rushing generously to our defense, we fail to put forward our utmost exertions to defend ourselves. For human nature's sake, let us not use the strength of others and husband our own. The ranks are now the post of honor and the only post of honor for all the able-bodied men of our State. Every man of physical ability, who stands aloof from the planks of our defenders at a time like this, should feel himself sharply and sternly questioned as to his recusancy by the eyes of all he meets.

The appeal of Kentucky in this moral crisis is to all Kentuckians. She must assume that all her sons are loyal to her until they prove themselves otherwise. She relies upon them. She accepts with thanks and blessings the noble contributions made by her sister States, but she knows that, unless her own children sustain her, she must fall. Let them come forth. From every city and town let them come forth. From every wood and grove and hill and valley and plain let them come forth. The torsion is sounding upon the gale; let them answer the stirring summons. We trust in God there is not a county of our State but will furnish its hundreds of volunteers. Enlistments, prompt enlistments, thousands and tens of thousands of enlistments, must save our country now, or our country will not be saved.—Louisville Journal.

The Lexington Statesman on the Union.

"We are no Union men. We boast no loyalty to Lincoln's Government, and profess no more love for the Union of the free and slave States. We go even further, and avow that we are not a reconstruction. The rebels but one Union man which made the sympathy of our heart or the approval of our judgment, and that is a UNION OF THE SLAVE STATES."

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Sept. 22.—A special to the St. Louis Republican says: Nothing has been received here corroboratory of the report of the surrender of Lexington, and many here disbelieve it totally. Dr. Hughes, who left his home, four miles from Lexington, on Saturday night, and who is a near neighbor of Capt. Magoffin, captured by Col. Marshall and taken to Lexington about two weeks since, and who has two sons in the rebel army, declares that if the city had surrendered on Friday, Magoffin's family must have heard of it, and he himself must have been apprized of the fact. It is supposed that if Lexington has surrendered, Price's army will move down the river, and, unless checked or defeated, will attack Booneville and then Jefferson City. Judge Field, who arrived here yesterday, having been a prisoner at Lexington, but released, says Col. Mulligan told him last Tuesday, that he could hold out, under any circumstances, five or six days. Jefferson City is quiet, and no fears are entertained of the rebels, whatever their force may be.

THE LOCATION OF REBEL TROOPS.—A gentleman who has just arrived from Tennessee, and who received a pass from Gen. Buckner at Bowling Green on Friday, reports that Buckner had there on that day four thousand men and twenty-four pieces of artillery. Roger Hanson was at Munfordsville with two thousand men. Our informant assures us that there are no Union men in that region of country South of Elizabethtown.—Louisville Journal.

VENTRABLE TWINS.—An incident rarely equalled, says the New Haven Register, occurred in this city last week. Two widows, twin sisters, aged 88 years each, were present in the camp of the 6th and 7th Connecticut Volunteers, in good health and spirits. They were born before the Revolutionary War, and have lived to see the first attempt to destroy the nation established in their childhood. May they live to see the attempt frustrated.

They have a story in Chicago about a drunken Captain who met a private of his company in the same condition. The Captain ordered him to "halt," and endeavoring in vain to assume a firm position on his feet, and talk with dignified severity exclaimed—"Private Smith, I'll give you 't' (hic) four o'clock to gissobber in." "Cap'n," replied the soldier, "as you'r (hic)——sight drunkerniam, I'll give you 't' five o'clock to gissobber in."

Owsley, and says that he belongs to the heirs of Samuel Owsley, deceased, of Lincoln county, Ky. Said negro man is about 36 or 37 years of age; 5 feet 10 or 11 inches high; black complexion, with whiskers; slender make, and will weigh about one hundred and sixty pounds. Said negro says that he has been hired to Charles Marshall, of Henry county, Ky., and the owner of said slave is hereby notified to come forward, prove his right to said slave, pay the fees and expenses, and take him away. Proclamation by the Governor.

WHEREAS, The following resolutions, viz: have this day been passed by both Houses of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, the Governor's objections thereto to the contrary notwithstanding, and are therefore the law of the land, I do hereby issue this my proclamation, enjoining all officers and citizens of this State to render obedience to all the requirements of said resolutions, and in obedience thereto, I have ordered Gen. Thomas L. Crittenden to execute the purposes contemplated by said resolutions; and I hereby require all citizens of Kentucky subject to military duty to obey the call which the said Gen. Crittenden may make upon them in accordance with the provisions of said resolutions.

WHEREAS, Kentucky has been invaded by the forces of the so-called Confederate States, and the commanders of the forces so invading the State have insolently prescribed the conditions upon which they will withdraw, thus insulting the dignity of the State by demanding terms to which Kentucky cannot listen without dishonor; therefore,

1. Be it resolved by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, That the invaders must be expelled; inasmuch as there are now in Kentucky Federal troops assembled for the purpose of preserving the tranquility of the State, and of defending and protecting the people of Kentucky in the peaceful enjoyment of their lives and property, it is—

2. Further resolved, That General Robert Anderson, a native Kentuckian, who has been appointed to the command of the Department of Cumberland, be requested to take instant command of the arms and power from this Commonwealth to call out a volunteer force in Kentucky for the purpose of repelling the invaders from our soil.

3. Resolved, That in using the means which duty and honor require shall be used to expel the invaders from the soil of Kentucky, no citizen shall be molested on account of his political opinions; that no citizens' property shall be taken or confiscated because of such opinions, nor shall any slave be set free by any military commander, and that all peaceable citizens and their families be entitled to, and shall receive the fullest protection of the Government in the enjoyment of their lives, liberties and their property.

4. Resolved, That His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, be requested to give all the aid in his power to accomplish the ends desired by these resolutions, and that he call out so much of the military force of the State under his command, as may be necessary therefor, and that he place the same under the command of Gen. Thomas L. Crittenden.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I, BERRIAH MAGOFFIN, Governor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, have hereunto subscribed my name and caused the seal of the State to be affixed. Done at Frankfort, this 20th day of September, in the year of our Lord 1861, and in the 70th year of the Commonwealth.

By the Governor: B. MAGOFFIN.

Proclamation by the Governor.

WHEREAS, the following act of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, cordially approved by me on the 20th instant, is the law of the land, I think proper, in the exercise of my executive duties, to make the same promptly known to the public, as I do hereby, and I do hereby enjoin all citizens and residents of this State to be obedient to all the requirements thereof, to the end that the humane and noble purposes of the Legislature may be faithfully effected. The said act of the General Assembly is as follows:

Resolutions providing for the peace and quiet of the citizens of this Commonwealth.

WHEREAS, The people of Kentucky have, from the beginning, ardently desired, still cherish the hope that they may not be involved in the unnatural prevailing civil strife; that Kentucky is now, as she ever has been, willing and ready to interpose her friendly mediation in adjusting terms of peace and reconciliation alike honorable and just to all; but as her wishes to mediate and restore harmony may not avail at present, and it is desirable that the people in the mean time should act in harmony and beat peace among themselves, so that if they should be involved in war, they will, as far as possible, relieve and palliate its calamities; therefore,

Resolved, by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, That if collisions between hostile armies shall take place within our territory, that it is most earnestly recommended to the people of Kentucky not to engage in said strife amongst themselves on account of differences of political opinions; that it is the duty of the people to be obedient to the civil authorities, and respect, in times of war as well as peace, all the rights guaranteed to every citizen by the constitution and laws of the land; that all good citizens, however they may differ in political opinions, should unite in protecting each other in their rights of life, liberty, and property, against all and every invasion thereof by unlawful raids, mobs, marauding bands, or other evil disposed persons, and aid the civil authorities in arresting all such persons and bringing them before the courts for trial.

2. Resolved, That we, the Representatives of the present General Assembly, hereby pledge ourselves to a strict observance of the foregoing resolution, and earnestly
